Adverse Claimants-Respondents

Petitioners, by their undersigned attorneys, state as follows for their Answer and Affirmative Defenses to the Third-Party Petition Alleging Claims in the Nature of Interpleader (the “Interpleader Petition”) filed by Citibank, N.A. (“Citibank”):

1. Petitioners lack knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations of the first sentence of paragraph 1 of the Interpleader Petition and on that basis deny the allegations. Petitioners admit the allegations of the second sentence of paragraph 1 of the Interpleader Petition.

2. Petitioners lack knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations of paragraph 2 of the Interpleader Petition and on that basis deny the allegations except they believe that Citibank is holding in blocked accounts the proceeds of the custody or trust accounts at issue herein. Petitioners lack knowledge of any additional parties who have claimed or may claim an interest in the property held by Citibank and on that basis deny such allegation. Petitioners state that the remaining allegations of paragraph 2 set forth a legal conclusion to which no response is required and on that basis deny the allegations.

3. Answering the allegations of paragraph 3 of the Interpleader Petition, Petitioners lack knowledge of any additional parties who have claimed or may claim an interest in the property held by JPMorgan and on that basis deny such allegation.

4. Petitioners state that the allegations of paragraph 4 of the Interpleader Petition set forth a legal conclusion to which no response is required and on that basis deny the allegations.

5. Petitioners admit that this Court has jurisdiction over their Turnover Petition but state that the jurisdictional allegations set forth legal conclusions to which no response is required and on that basis deny such allegations.

6. Petitioners admit that this Court has venue over their Turnover Petition but state that the allegations regarding venue set forth legal conclusions to which no response is required and on that basis deny such allegation.

7. Petitioners admit the allegations of paragraph 7 of the Interpleader Petition.

8. Petitioners admit the allegations of paragraph 8 of the Interpleader Petition.

9. Petitioners admit the allegations of paragraph 9 of the Interpleader Petition.

10. Petitioners admit the allegations of paragraph 10 of the Interpleader Petition.

11. Petitioners admit the allegations of paragraph 11 of the Interpleader Petition.

12. Petitioners admit the allegations of paragraph 12 of the Interpleader Petition. By way of further answer, the September 9, 2013 Omnibus Petition did not include the list of blocked accounts at each bank because, as stated in paragraph 50 thereof, each bank was furnished with a list of the accounts at that bank which were being sought. As to the allegations contained in the third sentence of paragraph 12, Petitioners admit the allegations but refer the Court to the pleading concerning the specific claims brought by each Petitioner.

13. Petitioners admit that paragraph 13 recites the text of Section 201(a) of TRIA, which speaks for itself, but deny the characterizations of such Section, including in the heading before paragraph 13, and further deny that the Section contains the underscoring in its text.

14. Petitioners admit that Paragraph 14 recites the text of 28 U.S.C. 1610(g)(1).

15. Petitioners admit that Paragraph 15 recites the text of 28 U.S.C. 1610(g)(3).

16. Petitioners state that paragraph 16 of the Interpleader Petition sets forth a legal conclusion to which no response is required and on that basis deny the allegations.

17. Petitioners admit that they filed the pleading referenced in paragraph 17 of the Interpleader Petition, which speaks for itself, but deny the characterizations of the pleading to the extent they are inconsistent with the text of the pleading.

18. Petitioners admit that the referenced court proceedings exist and that their status and nature speak for themselves, but to the extent that the remaining allegations of paragraph 18 of the Interpleader Petition set forth a legal conclusion no response is required and Petitioners deny such allegations on that basis.

19. Petitioners lack knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations of paragraph 19 of the Interpleader Petition and on that basis deny the allegations.

20. Petitioners lack knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations of paragraph 20 of the Interpleader Petition and on that basis deny the allegations.

21. Petitioners lack knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations of paragraph 21 of the Interpleader Petition and on that basis deny the allegations, except admit that Citibank is holding in blocked accounts the proceeds of the custody or trust accounts at issue herein.

22. Petitioners lack knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations of paragraph 22 of the Interpleader Petition and on that basis deny the allegations.

23. Petitioners lack knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations of paragraph 23 of the Interpleader Petition and on that basis deny the allegations.

24. Petitioners lack knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations of paragraph 24 of the Interpleader Petition and on that basis deny the allegations.

25. Petitioners lack knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations of paragraph 25 of the Interpleader Petition and on that basis deny the allegations.

26. Petitioners lack knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations of paragraph 26 of the Interpleader Petition and on that basis deny the allegations.

27. Petitioners lack knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations of paragraph 27 of the Interpleader Petition and on that basis deny the allegations.

28. Petitioners admit that they filed the pleading referenced in paragraph 28 of the Interpleader Petition, which speaks for itself, but deny the characterizations of the pleading to the extent they are inconsistent with the text of the pleading.

29. Petitioners deny the allegations of paragraph 29 of the Interpleader Petition.

30. Petitioners deny the allegations of paragraph 30 of the Interpleader Petition.

31. Petitioners state that the allegations of paragraph 31 of the Interpleader Petition set forth a legal conclusion to which no response is required and on that basis deny the allegations.

32. Petitioners state that the allegations of paragraph 32 of the Interpleader Petition set forth a legal conclusion to which no response is required and on that basis deny the allegations. To the extent paragraph 32 alleges factual allegations, Petitioners lack knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to their truth and on that basis deny the allegations.

33. Petitioners lack knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations of paragraph 33 of the Interpleader Petition and on that basis deny the allegations.

34. Petitioners state that the allegations of paragraph 34 of the Interpleader Petition set forth a legal conclusion to which no response is required and on that basis deny the allegations.

35. Petitioners state that the allegations of paragraph 35 of the Interpleader Petition set forth a legal conclusion to which no response is required and on that basis deny the allegations.

36. Petitioners state that the allegations of paragraph 36 of the Interpleader Petition set forth a legal conclusion to which no response is required and on that basis deny the allegations.

37. Petitioners state that the allegations of paragraph 37 of the Interpleader Petition set forth a legal conclusion to which no response is required and on that basis deny the allegations.

FIRST AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

1. Petitioners are entitled to full relief and recovery under the Terrorism Risk Insurance Act, the Foreign Sovereign Immunities Act, and CPLR § 5225. None of the Adverse Claimants except Petitioners have a superior claim to the Blocked Assets.

SECOND AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

2. The Interpleader Petition fails to state a claim upon which relief can be granted.

THIRD AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

3. By virtue of 31 C.F.R. 515.203, the Adverse Claimants except Petitioners have no claim to the Blocked Assets because such Adverse Claimants could not have acquired any interest in Blocked Assets after the date on which the assets were blocked.

FOURTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

4. The Adverse Claimants except Petitioners have no claim to the Blocked Assets by virtue of their commercial dealings with a designated state-sponsor of terrorism.

FIFTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

5. The Adverse Claimants except Petitioners have no claim to the Blocked Assets because the only means to release a Blocked Asset is either by license issued by OFAC or by Court Order for turnover in favor of a judgment-creditor of a state-sponsor of terrorism. Upon information and belief, the Adverse Claimants have not been issued a license and are not judgment-creditors of the Republic of Cuba.

SIXTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

6. Any right that could be asserted by the Adverse Claimants (except Petitioners) to the Blocked Assets is preempted by the Terrorism Risk Insurance Act and the Foreign Sovereign Immunities Act.

SEVENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

7. The Interpleader Petition fails to state a claim under N.Y. C.P.L.R. § 5239.

EIGHTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

8. The claims alleged the Interpleader Petition are barred under N.Y. Abandoned Property § 300, N.Y. C.P.L.R. § 213, and N.Y. U.C.C. § 4A-505.

NINTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

9. Any right that could be asserted by the Adverse Claimants except Petitioners to the Blocked Assets is barred under the applicable statute of limitations.

TENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

10. The subject accounts were either nationalized by the Republic of Cuba or forfeited by the original owners by operation of law. Therefore, no individual claimant, except Petitioners, has rights in the accounts.

ELEVENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

11. Petitioners reserve the right to amend and/or supplement this Answer.

WHEREFORE, Petitioners respectfully request that the Court (a) dismiss the Interpleader Petition in its entirety, or dismiss the claims of all other Adverse Claimants except Petitioners under the Amended Omnibus Petition for Turnover Order and (b) grant Petitioners such other relief as the Court deems appropriate.
